

James O' Sullivan

13 Sundrive Park, Ballinlough, Cork.

Linkedin.com/in/jamesosullivan123

Email: jamesmosullivan1@yahoo.com / Phone: 085 743 8614

Personal Statement

A responsible and motivated 5th-year student at St. Francis College with a diverse range of skills and experience. I am a qualified Lifeguard/First aid and UCC certified math tutor, showing that I am self-disciplined and hard-working. Available to work any hours possible.

Employment History:

Admin Assistant – 2025

Coakley Moloney Solicitors

- Filed documents and Logging information
- Boxed and delivered files
- Organized storage rooms
- Summer job

Math's Tutoring – 2025

UCC

- Week course learning key teaching skills.
- Honorable mentions in Olympiads.
- Tutoring local junior cert students

Work Experience – January-2025

Workvivo - Zoom

- Experienced web development at scale.
- Helped Market research for social media companies.

Dunnes Stores

- Stacked shelves/display cases.
- Moved inventory from the stock room.

Cork Penny Dinners

- I volunteered for a week.
- Cleaned and prepared meals.

Education:

St. Francis College

Rochestown, Cork – 2020 - present

5th year

Junior Certificate:

Distinction: Science.

Higher Merit: Math, History, Geography.

Merit: English, Irish.

Achievements & Projects

International Engineering event | Austria

- Competed in a weeklong IT engineering hackathon.
- Sponsored to go there by companies such as Dell and Microsoft.
- Placed 7th out of 90 participants.

Rochestown Robotics team/ Vex

- Team ranked 1st in Europe for time
- Working on rebuild for Nationals

10k Cork Marathon

- Trained for two months
- Shows self-discipline and goal setting

Meitheal team

- Organized activities for first year students
- Created and showcased presentations

References

Coakley Moloney solicitors: Adele Bevin - 086 346 7344